Family Violence Prevention Week

February 12-18, 2012

Stand with us Poster Campaign!

As part of the 2011/2012 Purple Ribbon Campaign Against Violence, the PEI Advisory Council on the Status of Women has created posters featuring Islanders pledging their commitment to help end violence against women and children.

The posters will be featured on the Status of Women website during Family Violence Prevention Week and displayed at events during the week. Each will say "I stand with you to end violence against women and children".

Neighbours, Friends and Families: You can Help Prevent & Respond to Abuse in Your Community ...

... by inspiring people of all ages to take action against violence

... by raising awareness of Family Violence Prevention Week

... by remembering victims of violence and their families

... because as a neighbour, friend and family member I believe that I can prevent and respond to abuse in my community!
