- 19.03 Employees may be authorized to use their total vacation entitlement at one particular time. Employees are expected to use their annual vacation entitlement in the year it is earned. Unused vacation may be carried over to the next vacation year, upon approval of the Employer to a maximum of one (1) years vacation entitlement.
- 19.04 An employee, upon separation from the Employer, shall compensate for vacation which was taken but not earned at the time. However, an employee's estate will not be required to compensate for unearned vacation leave in case of separation due to death of the employee, or following involuntary separation due to layoff or permanent disability.

20.02 Working on a Holiday

An employee who works on a holiday shall receive pay at time and one-half the regular hourly rate and shall have the holiday rescheduled with pay.

20.03 Holiday Falling on a Leave with Pay

When a holiday falls within an employee's period of leave with pay, that day shall constitute a holiday and not a day of leave.

20.04 Holiday Coinciding with Day of Rest

When a day designated as a holiday coincides with an employee's day of rest, the Employer shall either grant the holiday with pay at a mutually agreed time or during the period June 15 to August 30, or pay the employee for the holiday in the event paid leave cannot be arranged as outlined in this section.

- 21.03 All new employees will have a probationary period of one thousand and forty (1040) hours worked in the classification.

In order to advance from probationary status a satisfactory performance review must be completed. The Employer will confirm in writing within seven (7) days of completion of the initial one thousand and forty (1040) hour probationary period that either:
- (a) the employee has successfully completed the probationary period; or
 - (b) the employee's probationary period is extended an additional five hundred and twenty (520) hours; or
 - (c) the probationary employment of the employee is terminated.

In the event the probationary period is extended by the Employer, the Employer will confirm in writing within seven (7) days of completion of the extended probationary period that the employee has successfully completed the probationary period or that the probationary employment of the employee is terminated.

- 21.05 Once an employee successfully completes their probationary period, calculation of their seniority will date from their initial date of hire.

ARTICLE 22 – DISCIPLINE PROCEDURES

- 22.01 In order to promote harmonious Labour-Management relations, the parties agree that the following procedures will be followed in the discipline of employees.
- 22.02 The Employer should ensure that discipline is necessary before taking action which might adversely affect an employee's career. Discipline should be used only as a last resort after all other measures involved in good personnel administration have been considered. Discipline must be timely to bring home the importance of the problem being addressed; however, the parties recognize that a period of investigation may be necessary to ensure the circumstances warrant disciplinary action. When an investigation is deemed necessary, it shall be carried out as follows:
- (a) an internal Employer investigation will be completed within fifteen (15) days of the date the Employer became aware of an alleged incident. The Employer agrees that if discipline is appropriate, it shall be imposed within five (5) days of the completion of the investigation.

- (b) in the event that the alleged incident requires an investigation involving outside agencies, the Employer shall conduct any necessary investigation, as quickly as possible, after becoming aware of the incident, and disciplinary action, if any, will be imposed immediately following the completion of the investigation.

22.03 The Employer in implementing disciplinary action shall first make certain that it is the employee, and not the situation, which is in need of correction.

22.04 The scale of disciplinary action is as follows:

(a) Oral Reprimand

When preventive methods have failed, the employee shall be orally reprimanded. During the oral reprimand the problem is called clearly to the attention of the employee; the need for he/she to change his/her behavior pattern is emphasized. The employee shall be informed of corrective action to take. These discussions shall be held in private; they should be well planned. The result should be agreement by the employee to correct his/her unacceptable behavior. A specified time interval for the improvement to take place should be agreed upon.

(b) Written Reprimand

When the oral reprimand has failed, and when it is believed that written guidance will help to get the result desired, such a written reprimand should be issued. Before such a reprimand for record is issued, the employee should be informed of the reasons for the intended recorded reprimand. A copy of the written reprimand will be placed on the employee's file.

(c) Suspension

Suspension as a disciplinary action is an enforced temporary absence from duty. When used as a disciplinary measure for misconduct or negligence, it is not necessarily preceded by less severe actions if misconduct or negligence is suddenly discovered or is very serious. Periods of suspensions are always without pay.

(d) Dismissal

This action is taken only for repeated violations or for a single serious offence including but not limited to theft, abuse, assault or breach of confidentiality as stated in the Employer's written policy and procedure.

ARTICLE 23 - DISCIPLINE

23.01 No employee shall be disciplined except for just cause.

23.02 Where an employee is disciplined by suspension, demotion, or dismissal, the Employer shall, upon the date of such disciplinary action, provide the employee with written reasons for such disciplinary action and a copy of such notice shall be sent to the Union.

- 23.03 Upon request of an employee, the Employer shall provide him/her with the opportunity to read any documents, other than recruitment documents, on his/her personnel file. Upon his/her request, the employee shall be provided with an exact copy of any such document, other than recruitment documents.
- 23.04 Upon the employee's request, any notice of disciplinary action or any other document concerning a disciplinary action other than evaluation reports and payroll transactions which may have been placed on his personnel file, shall be removed after twenty-four (24) months have elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken, provided no further disciplinary action has been recorded during this period.
- 23.05 Where it is determined that an employee has been unjustly disciplined, the employee shall be reinstated without loss of pay and any other benefits which would have accrued to him/her if he/she had not been disciplined. Nothing in this Article prevents an Arbitration Board from increasing, decreasing, or otherwise revising a disciplinary award made by the Employer.

ARTICLE 24 - GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

24.01 Policy

The parties recognize the desirability of providing of an orderly system of resolving any complaints or disputes in order to provide a harmonious and cooperative relationship between the Employer and its employees. The termination of employment of a probationary employee during the probationary period following an evaluation shall be subject to the total discretion of the Employer and such termination shall not constitute discipline under Article 23 of this Agreement.

24.02 "Grievance" means a written complaint by an employee or group of employees

- (a) arising out of a difference of opinion as to the application, interpretation, administration, or alleged violation of this Agreement, or
- (b) including any question as to whether a matter in this Agreement is arbitrable.

24.03 Designated Representative

The Employer shall designate a representative for the Grievance Procedure and advise the Union of the name and title of the Designated Representative.

24.04 Steward

The Union shall provide the Employer with written notice of the name of a Steward authorized to deal with grievances on behalf of employees.

24.05 Union Concurrence

Employees may pursue a grievance under this Article only with the approval of the Union.

24.06 Complaint/Grievance Settlement Process

Step 1

The parties to the Agreement recognize many complaints can be settled through informal discussion. For this reason, it is understood that if an employee has a complaint the employee shall discuss it with the Supervisor, as soon as possible and in any case no complaint shall be made unless made within twenty-one (21) days from the date upon which the complaint occurred, unless an extension of time has been mutually agreed upon. The Supervisor shall respond in writing to the complaint within seven (7) days of the discussion.

Step 2

Within seven (7) days of the response to the complaint in Step 1, the aggrieved employee may submit a written grievance, if the complaint has not been resolved to the satisfaction of the employee and the Union. The employee and the Union Steward shall meet with the Employer's Board of Directors as represented by the Chair and another member to discuss the grievance. Within seven (7) days of such meeting the Board of Directors as represented by the Chair and another member shall render a written decision on the grievance.

Step 3

Failing satisfactory settlement of the grievance being reached in Step 2, the Union may within ten (10) days of receipt of the decision referred to in Step 2, refer the grievance to Arbitration.

24.07 Union Representation

In any case where an employee presents a complaint in person at Step 1, or in any case where a meeting is held on a complaint or grievance at any level, the employee may be accompanied by a Union Steward or a representative of the Union.

24.08 Time Limits

The time limits specified in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement in writing.

24.09 Communications

- (a) When it is necessary to use the postal service to process a grievance, all correspondence between the designated representative and the employee shall be by registered mail.

24.10 Employer/Union Grievance

Where either party to this Agreement disputes the interpretation, application, administration, or any alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, the matter shall be discussed initially with the other party within fourteen (14) days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to Arbitration.

24.11 Composition of Board of Arbitration

When either party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the request shall be made by registered mail addressed to the other party of the Agreement, faxed or hand delivered, indicating the name of its nominee on the arbitration board. Within fourteen (14) days thereafter, the other party shall answer by registered mail, fax or hand delivery, indicating the name and address of its nominee to the arbitration board.

24.12 Failure to Appoint

If the party receiving the notice fails to appoint an arbitrator, or if the two appointees fail to agree upon a chair within seven (7) days of their appointment, the appointment shall be made by the Minister Responsible for the Labour Act upon request of either party.

24.13 Arbitration Procedure

The Board shall determine the arbitration procedures but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. The Board shall avoid legalistic or formal procedures as much as possible. Unless otherwise arranged by the chair the hearing shall commence within ten (10) days of the Board's appointment and a decision will be rendered within ten (10) days of completion of the hearings.

24.14 Decision of the Board

The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Board. Where there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chairperson shall be the decision of the Board. The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding and enforceable on all parties, but in no event shall the Board of Arbitration have the power to change this Agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.

24.15 Disagreement on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the Board's decision, either party may apply to the Chair to reconvene the Board, whether in person or by way of written communication, to clarify the decision, which the Chair shall do within five (5) days or as otherwise scheduled by the Chair.

24.16 Expenses of the Arbitrator

Each party shall pay:

- (a) the fees and expenses of the arbitrator it appoints;
- (b) one-half (½) of the fees and expenses of the Chair;
- (c) one-half (½) of the expenses, if any, of accommodation required for the hearing.

24.17 Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory Holidays shall not be included in any time limits of this Article 24.

24.18 Upon mutual agreement of the parties, a single arbitrator may be used in lieu of an arbitration board. All provisions of this Article shall apply, with the necessary amendments going to the appointment of a single arbitrator.

In order to finalize a seniority list, the Employer, in accordance with Articles 25.02 and 25.03 shall determine each employee's seniority hours, and post a seniority list with each employee's seniority hours. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of the rearrangement of positions shall also be returned to his/her former position and salary rate, without loss of seniority.

Prior to the layoff of permanent employees, substitute employees shall be laid off first.
