

Hurt at Work?

Direct Access to Physiotherapy

Did you know that if you are hurt at work, you can start physiotherapy treatments

WHILE the WCB makes a decision on your claim?

As a worker on Prince Edward Island, you have direct access to approved physiotherapists for assessment of work-related injuries. If you are hurt at work, get the immediate first aid you need, report your injury to your employer, then follow these steps:

- It is important to have your injury assessed as soon as possible, as early access to care has a significant positive impact on your recovery.

- If you are hurt at work, contact a physiotherapy clinic from the list provided and request an assessment.

- Be sure to inform the clinic that your injury is work related.
- An appointment will be provided within 48 hours of your request.

- Fill out a Worker's Report (Form 6). You can obtain a copy from your employer or by visiting the WCB website at wcb.pe.ca

- Send your completed Worker's Report to the WCB by fax at 902-368-5696 or drop it off at the WCB office at 14 Weymouth Street in Charlottetown.

- You can also fill out the Worker's Report online, save it to PDF, and email the completed form to workerservices@wcb.pe.ca

- There are many positive health benefits to staying at work and returning to work as soon as possible following an injury.

- Modified duties are a safe and effective way to remain at work while recovering.
- Follow the recommendations for returning to work prescribed by the physiotherapist to ensure the best results and a safe recovery.

- Receiving treatment? Attend all of your scheduled appointments.
- Complete your home exercise program provided by your physiotherapist.
