- 12.06 (a) Disability Leave

"Disability Leave" means a temporary absence from work without pay due to medical reasons. Disability Leave commences upon expiry of injury on duty leave or paid sick leave as the Employee is medically unfit to return to work at that time and the Employee cannot be accommodated under Article 41. Employees on Disability Leave may be in receipt of long-term disability leave benefits pursuant to 12.06 (b)(i).

If the Employee is unable to return to work or be accommodated pursuant to Article 41 on the date Disability Leave ends, the Employee shall be laid off pursuant to Article 42.
- (d) During the period of Disability Leave and Layoff pursuant to (c) above, the provisions of article 15.04 (c) and (e) shall apply.
- (e) The period of Disability Leave shall be deemed a period of experience for salary increment purposes only and a period of employment for the purpose of severance or retirement pay. Otherwise, it shall not be a period of service; however, it shall not constitute a break in service for an Employee who returns to work following Disability Leave. For greater certainty, no other benefits shall accumulate during Disability Leave. Group insurance coverage will continue during the period of leave with no change to the cost sharing arrangement.
- (f) An Employee, upon approval for long term disability benefits, shall be notified by the Employer that all rights and privileges of the Collective Agreement shall terminate in the event the Employee is approved for long term disability benefits beyond the twenty-four (24) month period pursuant to Article 12.06 (b)(i), except for those benefits expressly provided in Article 12.06 (b)(i).

- d) An Employee shall be eligible for a maximum of five (5) days' leave with pay for the purpose of taking Civil Defense training.
- e) An Employee shall be eligible for a maximum of three (3) days' leave with pay for personal reasons at the discretion of the Program Manager.
- f) An Employee shall be eligible for leave with pay to attend an arbitration hearing as a witness or as an affected third party.
- g) An Employee shall be eligible for leave with pay if the Employee is required to attend court actions arising from employment provided the court action is not an action brought against the Employer by the Employee.
- h) An Employee shall receive a leave of absence with pay when an Employee serves as a juror. An Employee in receipt of the Employee's regular earnings while serving as a juror shall remit to the employer all monies paid to the Employee by the court, except travelling and meal allowance not reimbursed by the employer.

ARTICLE 14 - MATERNITY, ADOPTION AND PARENTAL LEAVE

14.01 An Employee may make application to the Employer for maternity, adoption or parental leave consistent in timing and duration with the Employment Standards Act of PEI. An Employee of the Employer shall be eligible for maternity or adoption leave without pay for a period of up to seventeen (17) consecutive weeks. An Employee who has been granted maternity or adoption leave shall be entitled to paid sick leave during the prescribed waiting period for Employment Insurance (EI) Maternity or Adoption Benefits. An Employee provided leave under this article shall not be entitled to the adoptive leave provisions under Article 13.01 (c). Where a doctor's certificate is provided stating that a longer period of maternity leave is required for health reasons, an extension of eight (8) weeks shall be allowed.

14.02 An Employee of the Employer shall be eligible for parental leave without pay for a period of up to sixty (60) consecutive weeks. Where an Employee intends to take parental leave in addition to maternity leave, the Employee must commence the parental leave immediately on expiry of the maternity leave.

14.03 Supplemental Employment Benefit Plan - Continuing Employees

The parties agree that Supplements to Employment Insurance (EI) Maternity or Adoption Benefits will be provided to Employees having been employed in a continuing position with the Employer for a minimum of twelve (12) months. The supplements to EI will be provided as follows:

- (a) An Employee who provides the Employer with proof that the Employee has applied for and is eligible to receive maternity/adoption benefits under the provisions of the Employment Insurance Act shall be paid an allowance for fifteen (15) weeks. The supplement shall be equivalent to the difference between the weekly EI Benefits the Employee is eligible to receive and seventy-five percent (75%) of their weekly rate of pay, less any other earnings received by the Employee during the benefit period which may result in a decrease in the EI Benefits to which the Employee would have been eligible if no other earnings had been received during the period.
- (b) In the event that the Government of Canada reduces the weekly EI Benefit, the Employer supplement shall continue unchanged, and that supplement shall be equivalent to the supplement calculated as if the change had never occurred. For greater clarity, it shall be deemed that the Employee's weekly EI Benefit did not change.
- (c) If both parents are Employees, the maximum entitlement period to either one or both parents shall not exceed fifteen (15) weeks.
- (d) Where an Employee becomes eligible for a salary increment or pay increase during the benefit period, payments under the Supplements to EI will be increased accordingly.
- (e) Total benefits are not payable for any period in which the Employee is disqualified or disentitled from receipt of benefits under the Employment Insurance Act.

Benefits are not payable if:

- (i) the Employee has been dismissed or suspended without pay as per Article 34 of the collective agreement;
 - (ii) the Employee has terminated her employment through resignation;

- (f) A claimant for benefits under this plan must provide notice that the Employee has applied for and is eligible to receive Employment Insurance (EI) Maternity or Adoption Benefits and provide notice of the period of her eligibility.
- (g) If the Employer determines that any benefit paid under the plan should not have been paid or should have been paid in a lesser amount, the amount of overpayment will be recovered from any subsequent benefit payable under the plan, or by making a deduction from any future monies payable by the Employer to the Employee.

(h) No questions involving the Human Resources Canada portion of the benefit will be subject to the formal grievance procedure provided for in the collective agreement.

14.04 An Employee shall, upon completing the period of leave, return to the Employee's same position, pay level and step as the Employee would have been entitled to had the leave not been taken. If the Employee's position is non-existent, then the Employer shall reinstate the Employee to a similar position, pay level and step as the Employee would have been entitled to had the leave not been taken. If a similar position is non-existent then the provisions of Article 42 will apply.

14.05 A leave granted under this Article shall not constitute a break in service for the purpose of calculating full-time service as it relates to seniority, severance pay or the granting of vacation and salary increments. An Employee on maternity, adoption and parental leave as outlined in Article 14.01 and 14.02 may elect to continue Group Life, Group AD&D, Group Medical and Dental coverage provided the Employee pays their own share of the premiums to each benefit plan. For the avoidance of doubt, vacation and sick leave shall not accumulate while an Employee is on leave under this Article. Service credits for pension purposes shall be in accordance with the pension plan text.
